Mrs. Oakley Met Horrible Death.

Mrs. Betty Oakley met a horrible death at Anderson last Saturday. She was living with her daughter, Mrs. Ferguson, at the Orr Cotton Mills. While in a room alone her clothing in some manner caught fire and she was burned so badly that death resulted in about five hours. Mrs. Oakley was past 60 years of age. She formerly lived at Walhalla, having moved from there some months ago to Anderson. Her body was brought to Walhalla on the noon train Sunday, the remains being laid to rest at the Neville burying ground Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Oakley leaves several children. Her husband predeceased her several years.

Quarterly Conference—Walhalla Circuit.

The first quarterly conference of the Walhalla circuit was held at Millville Saturday afternoon, Rev. R. Herbert Jones, P. E., presiding. Five churches were represented as follows: Fairview, S. C. Biggerstaff; Millville, W. E. Alexander and H. J. Sligh; Oconee, Mrs. M. Brucke; Laurel Springs, Gus C. Arve; Zion, Clinton White and Mr. Pike; Rev. Rhett Doyle being a member ex-officio. Newry, Whitmire and Double Springs were not represented. The reports of Rev. W. M. Harden, the pastor, were very good, showing that he is getting the work well in hand. There have been no accessions to the church so far this year. No deaths among the members were reported. Rev. E. S. Jones was present, and being introduced to the conference was greeted cordially. J. M. Whitmire, E. M. Hamby and W. E. Alexander were elected as delegates to the missionary institute to be held at Asheville in May. The next conference will be held with the Methodist church at Newry.

Death of Capt. Andrew T. Wilson.

Capt. Andrew T. Wilson died suddenly at his home in Walhalla last Sunday morning about 9 o'clock. He was sitting in a chair by the fire, apparently no weaker than usual, when he fell forward and was dead when assistance reached him. He had been suffering for several months from dropsy, and his health had been gradually declining. Capt. Wilson was in his 83d year, having been born November 7, 1832. He was a native of Pickens county, his birth place being in the Georgia Creek neighborhood. He was a Confederate soldier. Shortly after the outbreak of the war he raised a company of volunteers at Marietta, in Greenville county, of which he was captain, and rendered excellent service in the cause of the Confederacy. His command was Company G, 16th S. C. Regiment, under Col. J. A. McCollough. He was a good citizen, honest and upright, and was respected by all. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his death. His children are: A. J. Wilson, Jacksonville, Fla.; M. Wilson, of Oconee; Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Yates, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Emma Pierce, Seneca; Miss Lura Wilson, of Walhalla. His remains were buried at Westview cemetery Monday afternoon, after funeral services at the residence, conducted by Rev. E. S. Jones.

Better than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I have ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try it. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

How Do You Account for This?

C. W. Hunt, of Mountain Rest, reports a curiosity, monstrosity, malformation or phenomena at his farm in the shape of a combination calf—half calf and half mule—which was born last week. Its feet are those of a mule, small and shapely, and have no sign of the calf's cloven hoof. Its head and ears also are quite mule-like, bearing a decided closer resemblance to a mule than a calf. The remainder of the body of the creature is that of a calf. At three days of age the little freak was alive, apparently healthy and gave every promise of growing to maturity.

Unclaimed Letters.

Following is a list of unclaimed letters remaining in the Walhalla post office for the week ending February 18, 1905: Miss Lela Gilmore, Mrs. Sarah Hyde, Miss Lela Ruchon, J. D. Cartee & Co., J. Manley, John Underwood. Persons calling for the above will please say that they are advertised.

J. M. Merrick, Postmaster.

A Card of Thanks.

Townville, February 19.—I desire to thank the friends for the kindness shown my aged father, who departed this life on the night of February 11 at Walhalla. May heaven's richest blessings rest on them all.

Lillian Tatham Nicholson.

Card of Thanks.

Editors Courier: Please allow us space in your columns to express our thanks to those who were so kind to us during the sickness, death and burial of our darling boy, May God's richest blessings rest on them all and our prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alexander.

One hundred and sixty miners were entombed by an explosion in the Virginia City, Ala., mines Monday. All are believed to be dead. So far fifty dead bodies have been recovered.

THE SENECA SCHOOL TAX MATTER.

Mr. Cary Replies to the Complaint of "A. E. I." and Stands for Progress.

Seneca, February 21.—Editors Courier: Opposition to the proposed three mill school tax in District No. 63 is evidently not the only sore spot on the back of "A. E. I." If so, he would not attempt to belittle the efforts of a deserving young man, yet in his teens, who, possibly by reason of his environment, favors the tax, and said so over his own initials. Nor would he, by insinuation, attempt to create the impression that passing the tax measure would mean "two hundred and fifty dollars a year for a clerk for the board of trustees."

I have been, and am still, one of the three trustees in this district, and we are almost entirely responsible for the effort that is being made to secure more money with which to run the schools. No idea of a salaried clerk has entered the head of either of us.

Neither is it necessary to slur at the ability of the present principal of the school, who happens to be from Anderson county, unless it be a case of "wincing of the galled jade."

So far as I know, the motive actuating those who favor the tax are unselfish ones, and come from a desire to keep abreast of other communities in school advantages. The measure has been fairly placed before the tax payers and qualified voters of the district to settle, and I venture the assertion that the advocates of the measure pay as much tax as those who oppose it.

I have never admitted jumping into men and measures under a veil, and believe the article of "A. E. I." would have shown more of the spirit of fairness and manliness, had his name accompanied his complaint; but maybe his cause is strengthened by withholding his identity.

Let me say finally that, once a year, during the month of May, I think, the people of each school district can select their own trustees, and that there is one at least in No. 63 not averse to being supplanted at that time, or earlier if desired by a respectable number of decent people.

Respectfully,

F. M. Cary.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

H. Haggins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all druggists. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free.

Banks at Seneca Establish Regular Hours.

Both the Seneca Bank and the Citizens' Bank of Seneca have agreed to adopt uniform banking hours. Their doors will be open for the transaction of business from 8 o'clock a. m. till 5 p. m. Their patrons are requested to bear these facts in mind and conform to the hours adopted.

Lycum Entertainment.

The New York cartoonist, S. M. Spedon, will appear in Walhalla Thursday, March 9.

Mr. Spedon has a national reputation. He is the founder of the magazine, Talent, an entertainer of the highest class, and bears an enviable reputation among Lycum entertainers.

A few seats yet unsold. Come out to hear him and see his illustrated lecture. Nothing of the kind has ever been seen in Walhalla.

This is a profit sharing proposition. You invest 50 cents and get in return not merely entertainment for an evening, but instruction for a lifetime. This will be one of the best numbers. You cannot afford to miss it, so come and bring a friend with you.

News from Reedy Fork.

Reedy Fork, February 20.—James Keaton, Jr., is very ill with pneumonia. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Duke, of Fair Play, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Broom, last week.

THE OCONEE COTTON CONVENTION.

Meeting Last Thursday Well Attended and Harmonious—The Proceedings.

On last Thursday, February 16th, at 12 m., there was a representative meeting of the farmers of Oconee county, at Walhalla Court House, for the purpose of organizing the Oconee County Southern Cotton Association.

In accordance with the plan of permanent organization, suggested by the recent New Orleans convention, the following school districts have organized in response to the call, and the same were represented as follows:

No. 5—W. M. Brown.
No. 7—J. B. Harris, M. W. Gibson and O. F. Isbell.
No. 8—M. D. Stribling.
No. 19—J. P. Stribling, S. N. Hughes, W. T. Hubbard.
No. 20—J. B. Pickett and A. H. Ellison.
No. 22—J. H. Barnett.
No. 24—W. J. Stribling.
No. 25—J. D. Isbell.
No. 28—S. P. Dendy, J. W. Holleman, W. A. Strother and R. T. Jaynes.
No. 28—G. N. Cothran.
No. 29—W. A. Brown.
No. 30—J. A. Harbin.
No. 47—T. Y. Chalmers.
No. 64—W. H. Cole, J. Merrill Sanders and J. E. Adkins.

The county association was organized by the election of J. P. Stribling as president; J. B. Pickett, vice president, and A. H. Ellison, secretary and treasurer. J. P. Stribling was elected delegate from Oconee county to the State Association, to be held at Columbia on the 21st instant, with J. B. Pickett as alternate.

On motion by J. B. Pickett, it was resolved that this association meet again at Walhalla Court House on Monday, March 6, at 11 a. m., and that steps be taken at once looking to the organization of every school district in Oconee county, not already organized, in which cotton is grown, and the election of delegates to the ensuing county association; that the school trustees of the respective school districts are hereby requested to call a meeting of the residents of their districts on Saturday, March 4th, for the purpose of organization and the election of two delegates to said County Association to convene the following Monday.

It is further resolved that 500 copies of the required pledge be printed, and same mailed at once to the school trustees of the respective school districts in which cotton is grown; also 100 copies of the plan of organization, one to be mailed to the chairman of the respective boards of school trustees.

Resolved, That the membership fee in this association for Oconee county be fixed at 25 cents.

Resolved, That the president appoint directors to take under consideration the organization of cotton warehouses at Walhalla, Seneca and Westminster, three directors to be appointed for each of said towns.

No further business was brought before the association, which adjourned to meet again on Monday, March 6th, at 11 a. m.

R. B. Dean, one of Anderson county's oldest and most respected citizens, was accidentally drowned near Micanopy, Fla., on last Saturday, while out on a lake fishing, by the boat capsizing or by some other accident. Roy Emerson, a young man, formerly from Anderson county, was also drowned at the same time with Mr. Dean. Mr. Dean was a Confederate soldier, a member of Orr's Regiment of Rifles, and was about 68 years old. His family connections are very extensive throughout Anderson and Oconee counties. He was a man of considerable means. His body will be brought to Anderson for burial.

Twenty-five to 75 per cent of the Georgia peach bloom buds have been killed.

Portrait of Capt. Courtenay.

[Charleston News and Courier.]

Some weeks ago notice was made of the determination of the trustees of the William Eston Home to procure, at their own expense, a good picture of the Hon. Wm. A. Courtenay, trustee emeritus, for installation at the Memorial Hall at the Home, as a tribute to his services towards the establishment of this beautiful charity. The picture (made by Prof. Stolle from a photograph) has been completed, and will be at Laneau's Art Store, King street, for a few days before it is placed in the Memorial Hall.

Ephraim Gilstrap is Dead.

[Anderson Mail, February 16.]

Ephraim Gilstrap, who lived in the upper part of Pickens county, died on the 10th instant, after a lingering illness, of dropsical affections, aged about 80 years. He was a member of New Hope church. His remains were laid to rest Sunday at the family burying ground near his residence. He leaves a wife and several children, besides a host of relatives and friends throughout Anderson, Pickens and Oconee counties, to mourn his death. His wife and one daughter are now down with pneumonia.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c., at all druggists.

Parr Has Confessed.

Columbia, February 17.—Marion Parr to-day made a full confession in the county jail that he killed Clarence Shealey. Parr is under sentence of death. Rev. Vernon I'Anson has been the spiritual adviser of Parr and has done what he could for the poor fellow. This morning Mr. I'Anson was offering a fervent prayer, and Parr, the jailer, and two prisoners were on their bended knees. Parr was much impressed with the prayer and asked death. Rev. Vernon I'Anson has minded the young man what he was doing. Then in the presence of several others Parr related to Mr. I'Anson how he killed Clarence Shealey. Whiskey, he said, was the cause of the tragedy.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES.

Itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles. Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, in 6 to 14 days. First application gives ease and rest. 50c. If your druggist hasn't it send 50c. in stamps and it will be forwarded post-paid by Paris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo.

R. O. Pickard, superintendent of the Wilson Cotton Mills, Wilson N. C., was shot and killed on February 16, in the spinning room at the mill. He leaves a wife and son. Wiley House and Charles Norton, both having been drinking, went to the mills and were ordered out. Norton is said to have told House to shoot, and House, pulling out a pistol, it is alleged, did so. Pickard walked to his office and fell dead. The men escaped, but were later caught near town.

MR. ANSEL IN WASHINGTON.

Congressmen Thought They Entertained the Next Governor.

[Columbia Record, 18th.]

Washington, February 18.—Martin F. Ansel, of Greenville, has been shown much attention in Washington in the last few days, and there is a strong feeling among South Carolina Congressmen that they have been entertaining the next Governor of the State. Mr. Ansel was passing through Washington on his way home and stopped here with Mrs. Ansel. They were presented at the White House by Representative Aiken, and were cordially received by the President.

Mr. Ansel did not care to discuss politics except to say that he expected to be in the race for Governor a year from now and that he felt that he would be successful. "I am receiving so much encouragement from every part of the State," said Mr. Ansel, "that I have every right to feel that my ambitions may be gratified by the people of the State. They were most kind to me in the last race, and I am not losing touch with those who did so much in my behalf and who have so generously promised me their support in the next race."

Mr. Ansel did not know what questions would be most prominently before the people of the State in the next election and thought that the time was most too far off to give consideration to things now.

There is rather general assent here to the proposition that Mr. Ansel will be the foremost man in the gubernatorial contest next year. Some of the men who are mightily well posted as to the affairs of the State express the belief that Mr. Ansel may be nominated in the first primary, regardless of who opposes him. The only thing, they say, that is likely to alter this is that some new and unexpected important question may arise which may divert attention toward questions and away from candidates.

There is no better instance of a self-made man in South Carolina than Mr. Ansel. Of honorable, yet most humble, birth he has fought his way upward. Born in Oconee county his parents could not indulge him in the education and profession that he craved and so he worked for them and got them himself. He worked hard and industriously and went to the top of the bar in Greenville. Then he was elected solicitor of his home circuit and held that position through the troublesome Tillman and anti-Tillman days of the 90's. He realized the bitterness that divided fathers and sons in those times and declined to aid in making the situation worse by taking sides. He remained neutral and the people continued to elect him solicitor. His tactfulness, earnestness and conservatism were appreciated even in those days, when men insisted on every man showing his colors and getting into the melee. If he is elected Governor Mr. Ansel will have risen to this high honor through more difficulties than any man who ever occupied that chair.

Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theatre in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number, or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by Dr. J. W. Bell, Walhalla, and W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Governor Hayward has invited Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State in President Roosevelt's cabinet, to make an address before the Southern Educational Conference, which is to meet in Columbia in April. He is an orator of a note and a man who has displayed a great deal of interest in the movement for bettering educational conditions.
